

A Reverend has Refreshing Sleep After Hard Study. 12

Elwood, Ind., March 6, 1891.
I used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic for nervous and restless nights after hard study; it gave me refreshing sleep and great relief. I also ordered it for another person who suffered from nervousness and it did him much good.

REV. B. RIEGEL,
DELHI, Ohio Feb. 1891.
A young man 23 years old who is subject to a rush of blood to the head, especially at the time of the full moon, and he at such times raves and is out of his mind, Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic helps him every time, so says

REV. WM. SCHOLL,
LOWELL, Ohio, July 1891.
I had epileptic fits for about four years, two every week, when Rev. J. Kampmeyer recommended Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic; since using it I have had none. It is the best epileptic medicine I have ever used and I have used many.

Government Sues.

Birmingham, Feb. 8.—The United States filed suit in the Federal Court to-day to recover $155,968 damages from the Debardeleben Coal & Iron Company and $108,675 from J. W. Worthington & Co. on the ground that they trespassed on eighty acres of Government land at Compton mines, Blount County, and dug iron ore and limestone worth the above amounts.

A similar suit for $46,000 was filed against the Tennessee Coal, Iron & Railroad Company in the City Court. It appears that the Alabama & Chattanooga Railroad, afterwards the Alabama Great Southern, entered the lands in question in 1889, but were not granted final deed by the Government until April, 1896, meanwhile the defendants holding title under one Higginbotham, mined about 250,000 tons of iron ore on them. If the Government wins the Alabama & Chattanooga Railroad and its successors will probably be the beneficiaries.

Here's a Cuban Receipt.

Recently the Cuban Aid Society of this city sent a draft for $5 to the head quarters in New York and in reply F. D. Powers received a receipt for the money, which reads something like this:

Orden num 308.
Delegacion de la Republica de Cuba.

New York, Enero 21 de 1897.
Recibido del Cdo F. D. Powers la cantidad de Cinco pesos ($5.00) pesos como secrio y tesoro del Cuban Aid Society de Mitchell, S. D. F. ESTRADA PALMA.

—Mitchell, (S. D.) Capital.

Col. S. H. Melcher, who is spending the winter here, is a member of the above Society and is a red hot enthusiast for Cuban liberty, gave us this as a curiosity the other day. We print it that our readers may have a change from modern English and revel in the Spanish idiom.

Those parties who put up in one of the Company's shacks about two weeks ago went on from here to South Pittsburg and had the pleasure of getting tangled up in a row which resulted in shooting of three of them, a man woman and one of the children.

Aunt Dolly's Department.

My dear children:

I have not had the pleasure of having some puzzles from you, which I expect as much as letters. Now try and see if you cannot make up some puzzles for me. I will tell you how to make up the numerical enigmas. Take a word which you think will make a number of small ones and put down the numbers, 1, 2, 3, &c., as many numbers as there are letters; then make your words, being careful to get the right letter to the number; give the definition of each word and of the whole. Now try send me some as soon as you can.

Whitwell, Tenn., Feb. 19, 1897.
Dear Aunt Dolly:
Will you please tell me how some of the States received their names.
Your niece,
Mary Lamb.

My dear Mary:—I am very glad to hear from you again.

Delaware was so called from Delaware-Bay which was named from Lord De La-Ware, who died in the Bay.

The Carolinas were originally one State, were named for King Charles ninth, of France, South Carolina, known as the Palmetto State, North Carolina, the North State.

Indiana, was named for the Indians, her popular name is the Hoosier State.

Tennessee named for the Big River by Andrew Jackson.

State of Maine for a province in France, 1623, it was called the Pine Tree State.

Massachusetts was so called from Massachusetts Bay. The popular name is the Bay State.

Connecticut was named for her chief river signifying long river. She is nick-named the Nutmeg State.

New York, was called for the Duke of York, and Albany.

Origin of the State of Pennsylvania. It was proposed Sylvania, but afterwards added for Wm. Penn, Pennsylvania.

Georgia, is called the Goober-Grabber.

Vermont, the Green Mountain State.

Texas, the Lone State.

Virginia, the Old Dominion.

Kentucky, the Dark and Bloody Ground.

Victoria.

John W. Brown, near Jasper, was in our town one day last week.

We would like to have a report from the Whitwell miners who were here hunting last week, and ate three dozen eggs, four boxes of canned beef, six boxes of oysters and drank ten glasses of cider and then wanted four boxes of axle grease fixed up for desert. Are they well? We hope so.

W. C. Hill, of the SEQUACHEE NEWS, was in our town last Saturday.

E. Barker, of Hickory Grove, was here one day this week.

W. A. Alder and brother were in town Saturday.

Bruce Womack, Mark Brown, Wash Kilgore and Albert Lewis attended the box supper at Sequachee last Saturday night. Some rode and some walked.

John Gross and Bruce Womack went to Whitwell last Sunday and had their hair cut. John returned with a derby, looking so much better.

Sid Ketner, of Whitwell, was calling on his best girl in Victoria last Sunday.

Prof. H. E. Tate and Miss Kate Lewis passed through our town last Sunday, riding.

There was a sociable at Will Hutton's residence last Sunday night. There was quite a turnout and the music was very fine.

J. R. Ables, of Dunlap, passed through our town last Sunday evening.

Our Post Office will change hands this week.

G. M. Brown left for Brownsville last Tuesday. He thought he would try logging it a while.

Honesty and Virtue.

There is more honesty and virtue contained in a bottle of Salvation Oil, than in any other liniment known. "Mrs. A. Fiedler, 2864 Palethorp St., Philadelphia, Pa., confirms this truth: She found Salvation Oil to be an excellent remedy for rheumatism, stiff joints, bruises, etc., and thinks it should always be kept in the house." Don't listen to the dealer's arguments in favor of a substitute. Insist on getting Salvation Oil, it costs only 25 cts.

A Northwest Hog.

Col. S. H. Melcher believes in the Great Northwest for pork raising as is witnessed by the following clipping from the Mitchell, So. Dakota, Capital:

"L. Stafford living northeast of town brought in a hog Monday which for size was a monster. It tipped the scales at 770 pounds and brought its owner over $17.

Such a hog at 4c which is the prevailing price in this section would have amounted to $30.50. and 5c per lb, is not unusual. At the latter rate the mammoth hog would have brought $38.50 over half again what it sold for in the Northwest. Either the people here are more fortunate in having higher prices for their farm products, or they have not seen near as hard times as those of other States.

J. B. Price, formerly of this place, is now at Newark, N. J., having moved there from New York City and wants the News sent there.

Mrs. Umbarger kindly sends us correct answers to puzzles in Aunt Dolly's Department of last week.

THE

—TWICE-A-WEEK—

COURIER - JOURNAL.

$1 a Year.

ISSUED WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY MORNINGS.

Beginning January 1st, 1897, the Weekly Courier-Journal was changed to the Twice a Week Courier-Journal. Publication days are Wednesday and Saturday. The Wednesday paper will be devoted to news and political topics. The Saturday issue will be devoted to stories, miscellany, poetry, etc.—a perfect family paper.

Each issue will be six pages, or twelve pages a week—an increase of two pages a week, 104 pages or 832 columns a year.

The politics of the paper will not be changed and the battle for pure Democracy and true Democratic principles will be continued as successfully in the future as in the past. In spite of the expense involved in the improvements noted, the price of the Twice a week Courier Journal will remain the same, $1 a year. A feature during the coming year will be the editorials of Mr. Henry Waterson on political and other topics of the day.

Twice-a-Week Courier-Journal.

Beginning the first of the new year, the Weekly Courier-Journal, of Louisville, Ky., will be changed to the Twice-a-Week Courier-Journal. It will be published Wednesday and Saturday mornings. The paper will be six pages, or twelve pages a week, instead of ten pages weekly, as at present, an increase of 832 columns of matter during the year. The Wednesday issue will be devoted exclusively to news and politics, while the Saturday issue will be strictly a family paper—filled with stories, miscellany, pictures, poetry, sketches, etc. The politics of the paper will not be changed, and the battle for pure Democracy and true Democratic principles will be continued successfully in the future as in the past. In spite of the expense involved in the improvements noted, the price of the Twice-a-Week Courier-Journal will remain the same, one dollar a year, with liberal inducement to agents or old subscribers who send in new ones. A feature during the coming year will be the editorials of Mr. Henry Waterson on political and other topics of the day.
